GARDENING CLUB

Please note - Gardening club will start in Term 4 (after Feb 22nd)

GAMBIA

Photographs of children receiving shoeboxes will be on the school website soon. Do you recognise your shoe box?

Our school sponsors a child in the Gambia. Last year we ran some fund raising events to help pay for this (currently it costs £10 per month). However, their fund raising pot is about to run out and we will be seeking out new ideas to refill it. If you have any ideas we would love to hear them.

LIBRARY BOOK DONATIONS

For the last few weeks the school governors have run an after school library club on Wednesdays. The club gives children the opportunity to swap their books on a more regular basis.

However we would love to have more books on our shelves. We buy new books throughout the year and 'The Birthday Book Scheme' is a great scheme for our school. Another way the school library is boosted is through donations of old books from parents.

If you have excess books at home (that are suitable for ages 4-11) please think of the school before you throw them out! Thanks!

MEMORIAL HALL PERFORMANCE

Following its massive hit with 'Three Billy Goats Gruff & Other Furry Tails', Theatre of Widdershins brings you this tale of mythical mayhem and asinine antics, lovingly retold with the company's unique blend of puppetry, storytelling and original music. Suitable for young children.

Sunday 24th January, Charfield Village Hall 2.30pm

Tickets £7 (adults), £5 (children over 3 and OAPs), £20 (Family - 2 adults, 2 children).

From Margaret Gargett (261180), Deb Field (261854) or Steve's Shop. Party tea for children included after the show.

See www.charfield.org for more details
