BREAKTIME SNACKS

This is always a tricky balancing act for us all!

As a school we want snacks to be as healthy (and as wrapper-free) as possible. This is a challenge as some snacks advertised as a 'healthy' option actually have more sugars within them than the same amount of biscuits!

We want to take a simple approach by asking you to avoid using crisps and chocolate as a snack option.

Why? – Firstly these foods only provide a short term energy boost rather than a sustained release of energy. This energy release is what helps the children through the morning. Secondly bags and wrappers from crisps and chocolate are creating more litter on the school playground.

What would we like to see? - Lots more fruit being eaten as a snack, carefully chosen snacks bought. The school kitchen also provides toast and cereal for children during break-times too.

Thank you for your co-operation

LEARNING AT CHARFIELD

Dragonfly Class
(Y5)

The Dragonflies have looked at the life and works of Roald Dahl. Part of their study has been to write a poem about 'Augustus Gloop' the incredibly greedy character from 'Charlie & the Chocolate Factory'.
