As you will be aware the school finally received it's OFSTED inspection last week.

The inspectors findings are being quality assured and we expect publication of the report in the next few weeks. We would like to thank the many people who completed the Parent-view survey and those who offered words of support and praise to the inspectors

LEARNING AT CHARFIELD

Ladybird Class
(Y4)

Year 4 have been looking at twisted Fairy Tales and have created alternative and scary characters. Here Bethany has described little red riding hood.

When the moon fades, the girl releases her blood red coated cloak. Little red riding hood walks and comes the forest leaving a trail of blood dripping thorns. Her face is covered with evil. Beneath her cloak hides an evil smirk. At the stroke of midnight, she stares not breathing and her pupils widen. Her hair is as black as coal and she has eyes as burnt wood. Her fangs, which are as sharp as knives, help her rip flesh of prey.
