ARTISTS WANTED!

Artists and creative minds are needed to help at an exciting art day being held at our school.

On the 15th July 2013, the whole school will be donning their aprons ready to get arty. We are looking for parents, grandparents, older brothers or sisters who are able to give up their day to come and lend a hand.

Each class will be spending the day designing and creating a masterpiece that will take pride of place in the NEW and exciting Charfield School Art Gallery. If you are interested in getting involved please see Mrs. Watkins in the office. We look forward to discovering the art skills you have to offer!

Thursday 4th early Walt's time opens in recount writing.

In the beginning I woke up and put on my earrings I can wear see better. After that I went for some revision in a class because I had to be rich. And that I went back to the ship and had breakfast because my tummy was rumbling for breakfast I had 3 crabs. They had shells on them. Some time later we found a ship to take I caught a pirates head of sea it was much time to get back to my ship.
 It was fish pie for starters and a rib of beef. A cup of milk when I went outside the cabin to get some fresh air I saw water
 I once saw a shark it went all down my hand. I said water I found another ship to battle. I tried to get my gun ready and ran out side to battle.

Well done Lauren you have used time openers and lovely neat writing!

Now use some openers from the wall to complete your recount.
